

Job interview: In pairs, write a list of job interview questions using present perfect to ask about their experience and past simple to follow-up and get more information. You will interview another pair to pick the best person for the job.

Experience Question- present perfect Example: How long have you worked at your current job?	Follow-up question- simple past Example: How long did you work at your last job?